2. Call to Order –
 - Highlights from our previous meeting
 - Evaluate Stock – Nvidia (NVDA): There were 828,000 options set to expire on Friday 2/10/17 causing a massive sell off. As a club, we decided this was nothing major to worry about and the stock will rebound back-up within a few weeks.
 - Investopedia Trading Game- Everyone is off to a great start.
~Remember~ that you can setup a limit buy/sell order for stocks.
This allows you to buy/sell shares of a stock at specific price.
Whenever the stock's price reaches that number, Investopedia will execute that order without you having to manual do so.
